1. School profile

Sunbury Primary School can trace its origins to 1869 as the first school in the local area. It was relocated in 1999 to Jacksons Hill on the southern boundary of the township of Sunbury, located approximately 35 kilometres northwest of Melbourne, within the city of Hume.

The school explores a range of classroom structures (i.e. composites) based on cohort enrolments. Specialist programs operate to support school priorities and include The Arts, Physical Education, STEM, the Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden and Languages - Japanese. To further support student learning the school is involved in various networks with a focus on teaching excellence. The community is ethnically, culturally and socio-economically relatively homogeneous. The School Family Occupation index of the school is 0.31.

The school is housed in refurbished, heritage-listed bluestone and weatherboard buildings. Children access school facilities that include traditional classrooms, specialist art and music facilities, library, hall, STEM Centre and kitchen facilities to support the Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden program.

2. Wellbeing and engagement strategies

Sunbury Primary School has developed a range of strategies to promote engagement, an inclusive and safe environment, positive behaviour, and respectful relationships for all students in our school. We recognise the importance of student friendships and peer support in helping children and students feel safe and less isolated. We acknowledge that some students may need extra social, emotional or educational support at school, and that the needs of students will change over time as they grow and learn. A summary of the universal (whole of school), targeted (year group specific) and individual engagement strategies used by our school is included below:
